

Corporate Law Bulletin

The Corporate Law Bulletin is a monthly analysis of key corporate law, corporate governance and securities regulation developments.

Edited by Professor Ian Ramsay, Director of the Centre for Corporate Law and Securities Regulation at the University of Melbourne, each edition provides:

- summaries of significant corporate law and corporate governance developments in Australia and Internationally;
- statutory amendments;
- recent court judgments;
- government policy decisions;
- ASIC and the ASX development; and more.

Published since 1997, the Corporate Law Bulletin is delivered monthly by email and as a subscriber you receive access to the archive of all previous issues.

The Corporate Law Bulletin complements the Governance, Risk and Compliance Newsfeed, to which Professor Ramsay also provides editorial advice and short case notes. It focuses on developments from regulators such as ASIC, ACCC, ASX, APRA, ATO, Austrac and business and industry groups concerning:

- privacy;
- risk;
- compliance;
- industrial manslaughter;
- anti-money laundering;
- market regulation; and
- corporate governance.
