

WEBSITE JOB OPENING

Senior Consultant (Houston, TX – Compliance Ethics and Learning Solutions) - Lead requirement workshops with external clients to gather client's technical requirements and translate them into a business solution. - Interpret and document complex business processes. - Develop detailed technical configuration documentation based on client's business processes utilizing MS Office Suite. - Provide software configuration and report development utilizing the Cintellate designer tools for this web enabled database application. - Develop database triggers utilizing SQL and Oracle. - Maintain continued proficiency with the Cintellate design tools. - Coordinate with external client IT representatives to identify IT environmental requirements for the installation of web enabled database applications into the client's environment. - Develop detailed work plans for the installation and/or configuration of applications within a client's environment utilizing MS Office Suite. - Perform installations of web enabled database applications into the client's environment utilizing an approved work plan and the Cintellate™ designer tools. - Provide detailed verification and validation testing of final system configurations utilizing established methodology and quality standards. - Complete all assigned tasks & deliverables within the specified time frames and within the established quality standards. - Provide accurate estimation of the amount of effort required to complete a given tasking within a 10% margin of error. - Provide technical reviews of configuration specifications and work plans developed by implementation consultants and provide technical approval prior to release to client. - Provide formal technical training to external clients on the use of the Cintellate web application and design tools. - Work with Cintellate designer tools to configure client specific Cintellate deployments. - Travel (approximately 20%) to unanticipated locations throughout the United States is required. 40 hrs/wk, 8:30 am – 5:30 pm.

REQUIREMENTS:

Master's degree in Computer Science, Engineering, Information Systems or related and 3 years of related work experience. Must have experience in a similar implementation role working with Cintellate tools in small to medium sized project teams, with at least 1 year specific experience with compliance, risk or quality management systems.

This particular position at Compliance Ethics and Learning Solutions in the United States requires the qualified candidate to be a "United States worker" as defined by the U.S. Department of Labor regulations at 20 CFR 656.3. You can review this definition at <http://www.gpoaccess.gov/cfr/retrieve.html> at the bottom of page 687. Please feel free to apply to other positions that do not require you to be a "U.S. worker".

Please apply at SAIGAmericas\_jobs@saiglobal.com

Cintellate is a trademark of SAI Global Ltd.