

Occupational Health & Safety

Australian & New Zealand Standard AS/NZS 4801

Perhaps your organization has achieved compliance with your legal obligations, are looking to incorporate the discipline of a management system to assist with the management of your Occupational Health & Safety responsibilities.

Certification of your OHS management system helps you to demonstrate that your system has been independently assessed by SAI Global experts, and publicly shows your commitment to workplace safety.

AS/NZS 4801 Standard

AS/NZS 4801 is the comprehensive Standard that is the benchmark to assess Occupational Health & Safety Management systems for organizations. Whilst this has been adopted as an Australian & New Zealand Standard, organizations in other countries have adopted the requirements of this standard and SAI Global has conducted audits against it across the globe.

Management System Benefits

Of course the benefits of an OHS Management System go well beyond external recognition, and can include:

- Establishment of goals & policies
- Planning & identification of hazards and the assessment and control of risks.
- Emergency preparedness & response
- Monitoring, measurement & records management
- Internal audits of procedures & management reviews of the system.
