

GAMING INDUSTRY COMPLIANCE:

IMPROVING EFFICIENCY, REDUCING COST, ENHANCING INSIGHT

Do you have the time to focus on the key risks to your business?

Does keeping track of all of your licensing requirements for multiple jurisdictions and games present an increasing challenge, consuming ever more time and resource?

Is improving the efficiency and demonstrating the value of your compliance regime something that would resonate with your Board?

Would enhanced risk oversight, combined with closer operational integration, help you to further improve business performance?

Compliance 360 – a proven software solution to streamline, simplify and manage complexity.

A BETTER WAY OF WORKING

Q: Overloaded by the ever expanding volume of compliance challenges in an increasingly complex world?

A: Easily manage your requirements in one simple system – configured to your way of working – so that you can focus on the critical risks and better support the company.

Q: Snowed under by email chains, spreadsheets, massive A4 folders, scribbled meeting notes, deadlines and more?

A: Integrate your compliance function operationally, with streamlined processes – so you have a compliance system aligned to and used by the entire business.

Q: Tired of being seen as a business disabler, a burden on the bottom line?

A: Demonstrate agility, efficiency and effectiveness based on up-to-date insight and knowledge - so you provide cost-effective value to the organisation.

COMPLIANCE 360

Implementing effective compliance management software enables companies to simplify their processes, eliminate unnecessary activities and ensure consistency across their business.

Correspondingly, efficiency improvements of up to 60% mean focus and resources can be moved to business critical risks whilst also reducing operational costs.

A single portal allows all parts of the business to take an appropriate level of responsibility, increase efficiency and integrate compliance into the culture of the company.

No more “rear-view mirror” reporting means risks can be mitigated before they impact the business.

Deploy in as little as 8 weeks, so your investment starts paying dividends almost immediately.
